Loving Kyla (Love Stories Book 1) Michelle Hardin

Kyla's in love with Eric and Eric's in love with Kyla, only problem is...they have no idea the other feels the same...yet.

Kyla Anne McCall has just found out that her fiancé impregnated another woman. Although she is quite relieved that she now has the out she has been too afraid to look for, she can't help but feel hurt by the betrayal. After a heated fight that ends in her kicking him out for good, she tries her best to rebuild her optimism for the future. The dream is, and has always been, to have the career, the husband, the kids, the home, and the white picket fence. But now she feels as if the dream has become unattainable; just as unattainable as the man that she secretly wants it all with...her famous, billionaire best friend, Eric Rhodes.

Boston's proclaimed prince, Eric Rhodes has been harboring a secret for the past four years. He is hopelessly in love with his best friend; the stunningly beautiful, Kyla McCall. Only problem is that ever since the day he met her back in law school, she has been in a relationship with another man. But when an unexpected twist in events gives Eric the window of opportunity he has been waiting for, he finds that he can no longer defer his desire to have her as his.

Loving Kyla is a heart warming STANDALONE romantic comedy that reads like a modern day contemporary fairytale. It is the first novel of Michelle Hardin's collection of contemporary romance novels titled, The Love Story Series.
