Tender Betrayal (Louisiana Plantation Collection) Jennifer Blake

She married him for revenge alone...

It was Melanie's mistake and Roland's drunken ardor that brought them together in illicit passion. If she hated him before for causing her beloved grandfather's death, Melanie had even more reason after Roland seduces her and drives away the man she was to wed. She accepts his duty proposal, then, swearing to use it to destroy him.

The passionate intimacy of the bedchamber is no place for vengeance, however, and pride and anger melt in desire's white-hot heat. A final act of treachery will surely end it. Yet betraying Roland may well break her hungry heart...

(Please note, this novel was first published in 1979 when forced seduction in romance was not the hot-button issue it is today. If these types of scenes offend you, please consider another of Jennifer's books in the Louisiana Plantation Collection instead.)
