The Story of Doctor Doolittle Hugh Lofting

Doctor JOhn Dolittle of Puddleby-on-the-Marsh was a little, loveable, old doctor who had so many animal pets all over his house and garden that his human patients would not come to see him anymore. As he became poorer he grew busier--for he became the animals' own doctor, learning their various languages and curing their illnesses. He became their most beloved and trusted friend, and his fame spread far and wide among them. Illustrated by the author
