Paige Matthews has a lot to learn - about everything, including herself. At age twenty-two, Paige finds herself driving across the country to start an internship with the F.B.I. in Quantico, Virginia. You would think that Paige would be grateful to her older brother, Trace Matthews, a senior F.B.I. agent who pulled strings on her behalf to get her into the program, right? Wrong. Paige is not overly enthused at the realization that her parents have pushed her from the nest and onto her older brother's plate for the time being. Always a loner, she quickly wears out her welcome with Trace and his wife Lindsey, due to her . . . need for random hook-ups, and finds herself crashing with her oldest brother, Easton, and his wife Darcy. Once Paige gets involved in a casual relationship with Darcy's ex-boyfriend, she is quick to realize that she really needs a place of her own. But can she afford it? Not at all. Having been introduced to Darcy's former roommate and bestie male friend, Eli Chambers, along with his partner, Cain Maddox, Paige is finally able to find suitable living arrangements. With these men. This is no typical "Three's Company" story though. Paige embarks on a journey of self-discovery that teaches her not only about giving, but accepting love as well. She soon realizes that sometimes what you're searching for has been right there with you all along. ADULT CONTENT.
