From Book 1: Johnny Sinclair is a genius kid with a full academic scholarship to college. He has a bright future ahead of him, but he feels that he is lacking one thing; the girl of his dreams, Nicki Frasier. Johnny is willing to do anything it takes to get her even if it means being something that he's not. However, Nicki is attracted to a man with power, money, and fame which are three things that Johnny does not possess.

Johnny gets put in a situation that shows him that maybe the fast life is not what it's cracked up to be. All along his true soulmate is his best friend, Brandy. By the time he discovers that she is the one it just might be too late.

Johnny gets in way over his head while looking for love in the wrong places. Will he trade the affection he desperately seeks from Nicki for his love of the streets? Find out in this tale of Heartbreak, Deception, and Murder.
