Break Through

Vince Rowe

The rough, rugged, down right sexy, president of the Chaos Crusaders MC has had a rough year. His family and club have been through hell, but things are finally starting to look up for Vince, except for one small thing, Cassie. She's been in love with him forever, but he pushes her away after a roll in the hay, telling her it is a one-time hook up. In his own sweet time, after nearly losing her to a psychopath, he finally figures out that he wants more than a quick romp in the sack with Cassie. How in the world will he convince her, he's changed his mind and wants something real with her? Just when he thinks life is back on course, a detective with a grudge threatens to mess with Vince and his club. New problems arise; can Vince and his club handle the new threat?

Can Vince break through to Cassie's heart in time?

Cassie Brown

The once shy, beauty has had a year of heartache and loss. The acts of a crazy man blew her world apart, taking the lives of her friends and nearly the life of her best friend. After Vince tosses her aside, she tries to avoid him, not an easy task when he's her best friend's brother. Having moved on after Vince shattered her, she finds it difficult to believe his pursuit of her is real.

Can she believe his change of heart?

Warning

This book contains content that is not appropriate for persons under 18. Drugs, sexual situations that might have triggers for abuse sufferers and swearing, graphic scenes, ETC. If this makes you uncomfortable, then this book probably isn't for you.

There are also a few chapters at the beginning – Chapter 4-6. I understand that as readers not all of you like when work/chapters/ paragraphs are repeated but as a writer I feel this is important for my book. It fills in the blanks and gives you more to the story. I hope that you can carry on through those chapters and not DNF.
