Angelique Jones, is a beautiful black girl from Philly whose childhood was tainted by her mother's psychotic episodes and her adolescent sexual escapades. "Rosa" as Angelique is known on the streets, tires of enduring endless nights of selling her body and soul on the Las Vegas Strip while clinging on to dreams of being a Hollywood starlet. After enduring violence and imprisonment, she has a spiritual awakening that beckons her to Islam and to lead the pious life of a woman wearing the niqab. While her body may be veiled, the fast money and glamour of the Game is heavy on her mind as a newfound Muslim woman. Tragedy and misfortune plague Angelique's existence, and she questions her decision to leave the streets and the only man she ever loved: her pimp.
