Loving him could cost me my family, leaving him will cost me my life.

Gia: Everyone knew the Gambino family, but after years away from home, I didn't recognize the man in the suit with the piercing gaze as one of them. That is until he arrived, gun in his hand, to protect me from my brother's mistakes. Dante's a killer, a hitman, and my protector. They want me dead, but he will do anything to stop them, even the one thing he swore he would never do--become a Mafia Boss.

Protecting her was like breathing, I didn't have a choice.

Dante: People called me a monster, a killer, I called it a job. The military trained me for one thing, and my family used it to their advantage. It wasn't the life I wanted, but the one I took and nothing else mattered until I saw her. She's in danger and I will do anything to keep her safe, including the one thing that will push her away forever--kill her brother.
