Kylie Hartman is the beautiful but indulged daughter of an Oscar-winning director. She knows she can pick any career she wants in the glamorous world of movie-making, and her dear daddy will make the introductions and make sure she has every opportunity to follow her dreams.

On her last day at an elite showbiz college she's delighted to find Zach Taylor leaning against his Bentley in the parking lot. Zach is an executive in Motion Picture Development for a successful production company, but Zach is more than a potential employer; he is a man for whom Kylie carries a flame.

She's convinced he's there to offer her a job, but in the golden city of Los Angeles, just as in the magic movies that are created there, not everyone, nor everything, is as it seems. Zach Taylor is a skilled Dominant who has more than a passing interest in the spoiled young diva, and it has nothing to do with employment.

Will Kylie find the love for which she's been aching? Can Zach bring a spoiled Hollywood Princess to heel? And what of the darker side of the glamorous business? The seedy underworld where sex and drugs are rampant.

With the glamour and intrigue of show business as the backdrop, Disciplining the Director's Daughter is a multi-layered blazing romance that will sweep you away with its sin, steamy sex, sizzling spanking, and unexpected suspense.
