Learning to Live By Faith the Life of Abraham Vol 2 Personal or Group Study Guide

In this second volume, we find Abraham replacing sight with faith more and more. In his early years of walking with God, Abraham was willing to give up his wife to save his life. But in his latter years, he was willing to give up both of his earthly sons in order to please the God he was learning to trust. Join David Jeremiah as you discover how Abraham became the father of all who believe-and discover the principles by which you can learn to live by faith instead of by sight.
