The Other Side of the River: Poems Phil Pochurek

The Other Side of the River is a compilation of poetry and prose written from the banks of the McKenzie River. Phil Pochurek spent almost two years on the river as a resort manager and caretaker, but when his dream job ended in a nightmare, he and his wife found sanctuary caretaking a beautiful home on the opposite bank. Set on the river's edge, against the sound of soothing rapids and crystal clear water, these poems illuminate Pochurek's path forward toward his healing. A place where he and his wife could renew their strength and start over on their path toward the Great Forgiver. Finding their solace on The Other Side of the River.
