Love at Work (Making Love Work Anthology) Pat Simmons

How do two people go undercover to hide an office romance in a busy television newsroom? In plain sight, of course.

Desiree King is an assignment editor at KDPX-TV in St. Louis, MO. She dispatches a team to wherever breaking news happens. Her focus is to stay ahead of the competition. Overall, she's easy-going, respectable, and compassionate. But when it comes to dating a fellow coworker, she refuses to cross that professional line.

Award-winning investigative reporter Brooke Mitchell makes life challenging for Desiree with his thoughtful gestures, sweet notes, and support. He tries to convince Desiree that as Christians, they could show coworkers how to blend their personal and private lives without compromising their morals.

But Desiree has more on the line than protecting her job or reputation.

She's safeguarding her heart. However, Bryan will prove to her that love doesn't just happen, it takes work!
