Trust No One... Young preschool teacher Jane Andrews is awakened in the middle of the night by a mysterious phone call that drags her into a quest for an enigmatic sculpture that rivals anything she'd ever read about in her beloved romantic adventure novels. Jane travels to Cambridge, England to retrieve the sculpture, her inheritance from a colorful uncle, and meets the handsome art expert Ben Hunt, a wealthy explorer and collector who lives on the edge, both in the art world and in his erotic exploits. Jane and Ben set out to follow the clues left by her great-uncle in search of what may be a priceless work of art, but the hunt for the missing Eros is far from easy. Their path is full of twists and turns, relentlessly pursued by those who would stop at nothing to possess what they desire. Nothing is at it seems, and dark secrets from the past threaten to destroy them both. Trust no one, she was warned from the grave, and it soon becomes clear to Jane that this includes the charismatic man she is falling for. The Hunt for Eros is a thrilling, sexy story of intrigue, suspense, and adventure. If you enjoy cultural travel quest stories like The Davinci Code, you'll love this erotic twist on the genre. Due to strong language and frequent, explicit sexual scenes, The Hunt for Eros is intended for mature audiences only, 18 years and older. This is a standalone romantic erotica novel of approximately 57,000 words with a happily ever after ending. Contains frequent profanity, voyeurism, multiple partners, group scenes, mild bondage, oral, anal, and exhibitionism. This is not a BDSM novel.
