The Golden Lamb: Tales from the Inside Fred Compton

The Golden Lamb: Tales from the Inside takes readers behind the scenes of this landmark restaurant and hotel and offers up a unique perspective on the inn and its history. From the hotel's disastrous fire in 1936, to the funeral home furniture in the lobby, to the quilt that wouldn't die, The Golden Lamb: Tales from the Inside is a loving, though sometimes irreverent, exploration of this centuries old establishment which has become a tradition with over ten generations of Americans.
