The Song Thomas Lochnicht

This is more than a love story, it is a pursuit of a bride by a king. This is more than a story, it is a poem and prose. The spacing and timing of this story were meant for reflection and it took the author 15 years to write this. A slave girl, mired in bondage, is released and pursued by the king. This is a deep, provocative, emotion filled work of art from the heart of the bride that will need to be read, contemplated and read again. Listen and you will hear the heart of the king. You will hear The Song
