The Westshore murders were a series of killings that will be remembered for years to come. A tragedy so grisly, it caused Floridians who were there in the seventies to recall the moment they first heard the name... Ted Bundy. Billy Vegas was the most fascinating homicidal maniac Detective Elizabeth Wylde had ever encountered. He was responsible for elevating Wylde's notoriety to zenith status, well beyond the fame she had earned in the early days as the Bureau's highly publicized golden girl, but at an enormous price. On the cusp of healing from the nightmare that has been her life after losing her family, the murders on the West Shore of Tampa begin again, as if the ghost of Billy Vegas had returned from beyond the grave to exact revenge for his execution. She quickly discovers that no spirit is responsible for the new murders; the truth is far worse than that. A new breed of serial killer has arrived in the Bay area in order to make his final stand. Project Dark Savior is the first book in a series that introduces Detective Elizabeth Wylde, Tampa Police Department's finest contribution to Law Enforcement.
