Becoming a Christian is your ticket to an easy and pain-free life!

NOT!!! Often, becoming a Christian makes life more tricky because you wake up to the spiritual reality—and war—going on all around you.

How are we to live? How are we to pray? And how does the glorious gospel of Jesus Christ transform our everyday lives? What power does God give us to live for Him? These are some of the questions that Word + Life: 20 Reflections on Prayer, the Christian Life, and the Glorious Gospel of Jesus Christ seeks to answer.

Topics covered include:

- The fight for contentment
- A theology of work
- Standing strong against temptation
- Living as a Christian on social media
- How to avoid being an utter fool at the Christian life
- Praying biblically through a variety of situations
- The hope we all have in Christ for forgiveness (including serial killers!)
- And much more...

God's Word is our training manual. This world is our battleground. Jesus Christ is our strength, hope, salvation, and song.

Word + Life the book is based on material originally published at Word + Life the blog (found at www.kevinhalloran.net), and was designed to do what a "Best of" record does for a band: (1) to introduce new people to the blog and (2) catch up current fans up on quality content they have missed.

"It has been said that theology is the application of God's Word to all of life. By that definition, Word + Life is theology in its purest form. Kevin Halloran's writing brings the issues of everyday life into focus through the lens of Scripture. The result is a book that is at once practical, convicting, and encouraging."
