But, do something, please. This book gets you started quickly. This book does not discuss or cover any type of issues related to an emergency or a crisis. The focus of this book is to prepare for the possibility of any type of emergency, catastrophe, or crisis so you or your family will not be caught off guard.

I searched online and could not find many viable sources of good information in case of a crisis or emergency. I felt the need to write this book because the global concerns we are facing now and may face more in the near future. It is important to prepare for a crisis or emergency.
