Lisa Knight is an average girl, spending her time between her job as a nurse and her messy apartment. When an ordinary walk takes a turn for the worse, she finds herself struggling to cope with her new role as a target for the Mob.

Helps comes from the most unexpected place, and she cannot believe her luck. Love is a tough game, especially if it shouldn't have happened in the first place, but she believes she's a tough girl.

Only that she never expected things to become so complicated.

When two opposite worlds collide, nothing good can come out of it. Her knight has to right some wrongs for them to be together.

Will she be able to find her way back to happiness? Can her relationship survive the racial tension looming just around the corner?

Her fairytale is in grave danger and she's starting to doubt the love of her knight is strong enough.

The only way she knows how to fight is by defending. Will she be strong enough to save them both, and the life they are about to bring into the world?
