What Do I need with love? Rebecca M Farrell

Oliver Kingsley is a young, wayward teenager striving to be normal the only problem is he is the only son of a millionaire. While Oliver struggles to find his place to belong, and also questions what he needs with the emotion of love he happens to meet Persephone Phillips, a new girl who is also trying to find acceptance. Filled with humor, this is the story of their friendship. Oliver will not only find his place he will also suddenly realize that maybe love is a good thing- and that realization changes his life forever
