Wings of Destiny Catherine Lanigan

Wings of Destiny is the story of Jefferson Duke, a man completely motivated by his indomitable belief in his ancestor's dream that his destiny is to build the golden city of San Francisco. However, in order to fulfill this destiny, Jefferson must sacrifice his most precious of life's gifts: his heart.

From the moment Jefferson sets foot on the shore of the trading post at Yuerba Buena, his vision never dims and his drive never falters. Here the personal and historical coincide, as Jefferson's own downfall is interwoven with the infamous San Francisco earthquake of 1906. Jefferson's life long struggle reveals the diabolical revenge between the House of Duke and the House of Chen. Theirs is the timeless battle between good and evil, a cause that becomes the Holy Grail of Jefferson's only granddaughter, Barbara, a journalist for The San Francisco Call. In the process of exposing these evils and in order to eliminate them, Barbara ultimately learns the shocking truth about herself and her own secret past.
