Glorieta Pass P. G. Nagle

As the Civil War tears its way across America four lives are swept up and forever changed: an illiterate Colorado miner who captains a volunteer Union company; a young Texan who becomes a quartermaster in the Confederate Army; a Union lieutenant with a terrible secret; and a young Boston lady in the care of her uncle, who arrives in the New Mexico territory at the worst possible time. These four lives will become intertwined by the bloody battle of Glorieta, and irrevocably changed by the shattering experience of war. Written with passionate intensity and impeccable attention to authentic historical detail, Glorieta imbues the previously unsung battles fought in the New Mexico territory with a profound sense of humanity.
