Kelis was always the good girl. She was in the top percent of her high school class and never went against her parents. That is until she meets Dezmonte. The two lock eyes and instantly fall under each other's spell. Dezmonte was the perfect gentleman and Kelis saw happily ever after with him. However, Dezmonte has a past that creeps into his present. Dezmonte becomes addicted to Kelis and soon he becomes possessive. As the two take their relationship to the next level, Kelis's parents warn her against the relationship and soon put her out. Dezmonte is there to take her in and she soon realizes just how addicted he is to her. His insecurity leads him to become abusive to Kelis, and she runs into the arms of her past boyfriend, Troy for protection. Dezmonte has just gotten started with Kelis and is not ready to let her go. As Kelis tries to separate herself from Dezmonte, he begins to grow obsessed. Kelis however, finds love with Troy, in hopes to get Dezmonte off of her mind. After many altercations, Dezmonte finally attempts to break the spell Kelis has him under. As fate would have it, he finds himself in a situation that forces him to face his past. The ending of senior year of college approaches and Kelis has everything a woman could want. A loving fiancé, great grades, and her family has finally approved of her love life. Kelis should be satisfied, but there is still a piece of her that craves Dezmonte. When he reappears in her life, she realizes just how much she misses him. Dezmonte has allowed her time to heal, but now he is determined to win her back. Kelis starts to stress with the pressures that she faces. Who will she choose? The man who has always loved her and stood by her side? Or will she choose the one who her heart longs for and her body craves?
