Good Girls Love Bad Boys: Alpha Male Romance Thrillers

What do women love more than flowers and chocolate? That's right—bad boys. For some reason, that boy your mom warned you about is the one that gets you the hottest between the legs.

Teddy bear guys are cute, but a girl has needs! While a teddy bear makes you want to cuddle, when you have that burning desire in your body, you know to look for some a little ... ahem, harder.

In these three tales, you'll take a journey with three girls who cross path with bad boys. These stories, Riding My Cowboy, Bigger Than My Husband and Crammed for My Finals are unique offerings for the price of one that will make you need some "me" time beneath the sheets.

Riding My Cowboy:

Martina is an executive who works 80 hour weeks and has time for everyone but herself. When she takes a weekend trip to a bed and breakfast, she hopes to clear her head and forget about her bills, her finances and the fact that work is pure hell right now. When she stumbles upon the handsome son of the bed and breakfast owner getting a full body workout in the barn, the sight of his ripped muscles stimulate her in all the right places. Can he give Martina a workout that will put out her fire?

Bigger Than My Husband:

Stacey is getting older and all of her friends are having kids. She has so much life to live and isn't sure if that's what she wants. Add to those doubts the fact that her husband has turned into a total softie, to the point that he may as well be the one that sits down to pee. After another bout with his sensitive nature and overly emotional "Mr. Mom" disposition, Stacey heads to the bar for a stiff drink, and ends up finding a black man that takes her to the bathroom and delivers something else of the stiff variety.

Crammed for My Finals

Sable has two choices—take her exam, which she will inevitably fail because she partied the semester away, or go crawling on her hands and knees to Professor Clark to see if he'll give her an A. She's already a wild child and the black sheep of the family, so it would be absolutely humiliating to have to tell her parents that she was about to flunk out of college. She goes to Professor Clark's office, and he sees her as a hot, young opportunity, and takes it upon himself to make her earn that A. Will she earn that A on her knees becoming the head student in the class? In which of her entrances will Professor Clark be cramming Sable?
