She wasn't looking for a man like Adam, but she needed him.

Shania lived for her ex, but he lived to hurt her. Finally done with that cycle of heartbreak and abuse, she runs from him, committing her life to a new town. Swearing off men all together.

Until Adam. He's a beautiful specimen of a man even if he is white, but he's also nothing but smoking hot anger, and the secret leader of a motorcycle club. And her boss.

Adam is not looking for a woman, he just wants a secretary. But when he sees Shania it lights a fire in him that he can't deny.

Can she handle his darkness? The dirtiest, naughtiest, deepest parts of his personality?
