Off The Map Sandy Rosen

Never in her wildest dream did she imagine her young family of four (soon-to-be five!) would be called to travel across the country with a group of people she hardly knew! But God's dream was for them to shake the corners of the nation (and their personal comfy, cozy little world) with the message of His amazing and surprising love. For love of God and Neighbor was their battle cry as they endured brutal weather conditions, unreceptive audiences, vandals, and spiritual blockades. Because of God's tender mercy, they prevailed. Their on-the-road journey lasted five years the memories and miracles will last a lifetime.
