Thanks For The Memories Jon Fordham

Thanks For These Memories is a book about life in the 1950's and 1960's and will appeal to anyone keen to remember or learn more about those decades. Containing thousands of facts about life back then, Thanks For These Memories makes the perfect present for those who grew up during those decades keen to have their memories jogged about things they have long since forgotten. But this book is more than just that! It has been written in such a way that it is ideal for those with loved ones suffering from memory difficulties who they are keen to engage in a conversation that may stimulate them; ideal for staff at care and nursing homes planning nostalgia activities with their residents; and ideal for younger people interested in learning about life and important events when their parents were young. In fact, Thanks For These Memories is a book for everyone!
