Ghost Pirate: The Legend of Juana La Loca Juliana L. Coles

Ghost Pirate is a non-linear, non-traditional brave tale of the legendary pirate, Juana la Loca, as told through the Visual Journal or art diary pages of mixed media artist and visual journaling pioneer, Juliana Coles. In a world that puts scant value on introspection, this soulful collection of imagery combined with text is almost overwhelmingly honest, raw, gut wrenching expression that will completely absorb you. This intimate cache of potent imagery and authentic narrative not only satiates with a revolutionary visual feast, but also provides assignments to create your own Pirate's Journal that invite you to illuminate your fears by going into the dark. Not for the faint of heart. As Carl Jung said, "One does not become enlightened by imagining figures of light, but by making the darkness conscious." This book, really more of a journey and a guide to the underworld, encourages each one of us to go to the depths of our being to discover inner treasure and untold riches.
