Mary Gena Young pranced about outside feeding her barn cats...darn things were kind of cute...and checking on her girls who were fighting on the swing set. . . . Hearing the TV as she passed the screen door, Mary instantly froze, her nerves becoming frazzled again as she was stunned by what she heard. The station's newscaster announced the name Jennifer Baldwin. Dropping the cat food, she dashed into the house, over to the television cabinet, and turned up the volume. Holding her breath and with her eyes glued to the anchor, she carefully listened. "A Mister Tom Baldwin was foundshot to death in his car late Thursday night..." There is no greater possession than a strong and committed family, and this continued story of the Youngs will test those qualities as their days remain frenzied by the strange woman who made her way into their lives in a small Texas town. Follow the continuation of their unbelievable journey as they experience the unimaginable.
