The End of the Suburbs: Summary of the Key Ideas - Original Book by Leigh Gallagher: Where the American Dream Is Moving Evolvo

The suburbs, which have served as the homes of millions of Americans for over 100 years, have been hit hard by the recession. “The End of the Suburbs – Where the American Dream is Moving” explores the factors behind this predicament and how most Americans have eschewed the suburbs in search of a better home and life in the cities.

Who should read this book:

- People who are interested in exploring the reasons behind the predicament of the once thriving suburbs.
- Anyone who wants to understand how our choices have led to the demise of suburbs and the upsurge of cities.
- People who want to know how the American society has evolved over the years into the shape that we see today.
- Anyone trying to find out how the changing social and moral values have contributed to transforming the way we live.

In this summary:
