What Counts as Evidence in Educational Settings: Rethinking Equity, Diversity, and Reform in the 21st Century (Review of Research in Education) (Paperback) - Common Edited by Judith Green, Edited by Gregory J Kelly Edited by Allan Luke

The most durable and robust problem facing educational research since the mid-twentieth century is the persistence of educational inequality. Under new economic, technological and cultural conditions, many diverse populations and communities face emergent and long-standing patterns of educational exclusion and marginalization. The authors examine what constitutes evidence in education research wit...
