The second book of the “Look Away” series follows the family of Skye Campbell as her family merges with the Mayer family. These two families share a mystery that must be solved, a dark secret that affects their lives and they are visited by tragedy during post World War II America.

From the hills of Napa, California, to the foothills of the French Alps, and the mountains of north Alabama, you will live beside the characters and experience a new generation. The four novels in this series take you from Pearl Harbor to the World Trade Center bombings. During these sixty years the world undergoes changes you have witnessed as you follow the families that you love and will never forget.
